Visitation Team

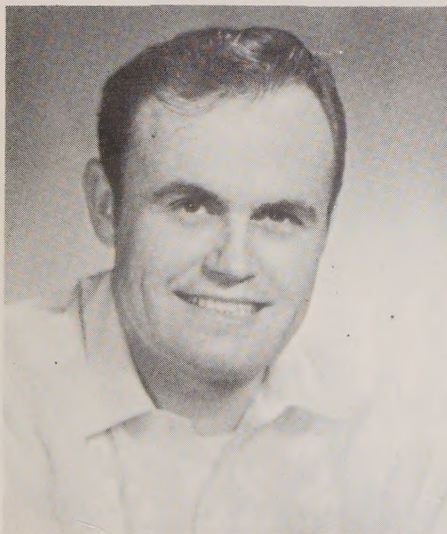

LOVELOCK, NEVADA

... was chosen for the Nevada Evangelism Thrust, coordinated by Rev. H. G. Rannells. House-to-House visitation was conducted with the pamphlet being used, 'There's got to be an Answer.' This literature was purchased by the District Men's Fellowship Department. The Visitation Team was made up of Presbyter and Mrs. Maurice Caudill, Elko; Pastor and Mrs. Larry Barham, Lovelock; Evangelism Coordinator and Mrs. H. G. Rannells; and Pastor and Mrs. Milton Ahola, Hawthorne.

FORTY YEARS TOGETHER

... Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Colter of Red Bluff, were honored at a reception to celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. Approximately 40 friends and relatives gathered for the festive occasion at Crestwood Convalescent Hospital in Chico, where Mr. Colter is presently resid-

Alex Shevchuk

ing. Hostess for the occasion was their daughter, Mrs. Hazen E. Chester, of Sacramento, accompanied by their granddaughter, Eileen. (Mrs. Colter is an ordained minister of the Assemblies of God.)

PIONEERS

... will have their sixth annual meeting at Bethel Temple, Sacramento, on October 27, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. All who have been in the District 25 years or more are considered to be PIONEERS. Many of these are indeed sons and daughters of the men and women whose consecration and steadfastness left a noble heritage to the Northern California and Nevada District. Approximately 150 attended the annual meeting last year.

ALEX SHEVCHUK

... and his brother have had a most interesting and rewarding visit in Russia, Portugal, Switzerland and Sweden. He expresses appreciation to those who have been remembering him in prayer and support.

PASTOR & MRS. RALPH GRAMS

... St. Helena, were recently privileged to visit two of their missionary sons and families. They are pictured with their son, Jim, and grandchildren, Gretchen and Brad, on Mother's Day at their home in Pindamongangaba, Brazil. The senior Grams went on to South Africa to visit with son Mel at

Dawson and Jeannette Wheeler

Rustenberg. Inasmuch as Mel and family were coming home on furlough, they were all able to make the return journey to the United States together.

EVANGELISTS DAWSON AND JEANNETTE WHEELER

... report having fine meetings in Washington, Oregon and California. Their address is 1138 Southwest Third Ave., Portland, Ore. 97204.

NEW HOPE CHAPEL

... Freedom, has recently enjoyed special services with Pastor James Whertley, Watsonville, and his youth choir, the New Life Singers. These young people did house-to-house visitation during the day, visiting 970 homes in the Freedom area. They sang in each of the evening services. The meeting had a two-fold purpose. First, to assist a Home Missions church; second, to further the training of the young people of the Las Lomas Assembly. The auditorium was filled each night and the blessings of God will long be remembered. Pastor J. D.

Atkinson

EVANGELIST & MRS. J. E. REDDICK

... report excellent meetings in the Philippines with Missionary Paul Pipkin and in a number of other locations in the Islands.

MORE NEW MEMBERS ADDED TO THE DISTRICT

... Missionary and Mrs. Lloyd Perera, Ceylon, are the proud parents of their first born, a fine son, Lloyd Charles Perera, born July 12. (The Pereras are on furlough but will be returning to Ceylon in the near future.)

PASTOR-CHURCH BOARD (Part 4 of a Series)

THINGS LOCAL CHURCHES SHOULD KNOW (Especially Pastor and Church Board)

1. Understanding of the qualifications for board members.

2. Understanding of the responsibility of board members in temporal affairs, such as employing businesslike methods in the handling of all finances, keeping accurate up-to-date records, prompt payment of all accounts, the issuance of proper legal papers in the event of loans, mortgages, etc., auditing of books, submitting regular financial reports to the church constituency, making sure the church property is adequately covered by fire, windstorm, and liability insurance, etc. (The Gerhart Bookkeeping System supplies are available through the District Office. This System is being widely used throughout Assemblies in the USA and meets all requirements of IRS and other legal agencies.)

3. Understanding of the spiritual responsibility of board members.

4. Understanding of the proper way to conduct board meetings.

5. Importance of keeping good records of church and board meetings.

6. Knowledge of how a church should function when it is without a pastor.

7. Knowledge of procedure of securing a pastor (contact District Superintendent for information re procedure).

8. Responsibility of Board to a new pastor.

- Moving expenses.
- Preparing parsonage or providing housing.
- Reception.
- Installation.

9. Responsibility toward a departing pastor.

- Period between a resignation and a final termination or departure.
- Farewell service, offering,
etc.

10. Ethics of Board Members.

- Keeping confidences.
- Promoting unity.
- Sharing the burden and supporting the pastor.
- Serving the people.
- Setting the example.

11. There should be a thorough understanding between the pastor and the board members as to their respective areas of responsibility.

The Trustee Board—Its Qualifications and Responsibilities

A. The qualifications for a trustee are not as demanding as those for a deacon; however, the church should choose the very best material possible.

B. They must work in cooperation with the pastor in all matters relating to church business.

C. The trustee board are the custodians of all church property, and are responsible for the maintenance of same. They are recognized in areas of legal and governmental matters. (Local constitutions and bylaws may have all of the authority vested in the Church Board so that they serve in the dual capacity of Trustees.)

Mission:

UNALASKA

*Reported by Robert Combs II
Photos by Victor M. Smith*

Thirteen men from Bethel Assembly of God, 1670 Moorpark, San Jose, California (Rev. L. R. Keys, Pastor), left the church in two "mini-buses" on Friday, June 26, to spend their vacations building a combination chapel-home for a new pioneer home-mission work in Unalaska, Alaska (a fishing village in the Aleutian Islands). They returned on Saturday, July 11, triumphantly reporting the virtual completion of the task. Nine working days, totaling approximately 1400 man hours, had erected the 1488 square foot structure, from laying out the building for the foundation, to the finishing touch: the erection of a small cross on the roof, a beacon to all in the village that the Good News of Jesus Christ would be preached there.

En route to Unalaska, the men (whose ages ranged from 20 to 74) spent the first Sunday as guests of Pastor and Mrs. Grant Wacker in the Anchorage Assembly of God where they were received with abundant and gracious hospitality by all in the church. There they also took part in the evening service, testifying as to the burden on their hearts to do this pioneer missionary work for the Lord. Each one felt he had a particular place to fill in this project, for his skill would be needed in the building: a plumber, a construction superintendent, an electrician, a sheet-metal man, two general contractors, some were carpenters, and others, though inexperienced in building, were strong and willing to handle digging chores, painting, cooking, and whatever else might be needed. Truly the Lord had supplied all the trades needed to see this building through to completion!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

BERENT N. KNUTSEN
Director

Christian DAY and NURSERY Schools

PART II

Why Did We Start A Christian School?

Because the need is urgent and growing.

Because it is an ideal evangelistic outreach of the church.

Because it is a waste to allow expensive educational facilities to sit empty between Sundays.

Because alerted parents are seeking out schools where in addition to the usual subjects their children are also taught spiritual, moral, and patriotic values.

Basic to the understanding of truth is the knowledge of God's Word and God's laws. Christ is presented in every class session. Science is taught as the study of God's world; arithmetic reveals God as a God of order; and history shows his dealings with the nations.

Through the school we have found a new way to open our church to the community, and the community to the church.

Kiddie Kollege Nursery, sponsored by North Highlands Assembly of God, exists for the two-fold purpose of providing developmental opportunities for pre-school children and/or as a service to families in which both parents must work. The program features a hot lunch program, air-conditioned rooms, trained staff, full and part-time sessions, creative playground, music appreciation, group games and nature study.

Tomorrowland Nursery School, sponsored by Hayward Bethel Temple, opened in April 1967 with two teachers and a few students. Today the school operates with a license for 60 children, with six teachers. There are four air-conditioned, carpeted classrooms and hot lunches are served daily.

The school combined a pre-school with day care for working mothers. An optional Bible course was offered and 30 out of 40 children took part, although most are not regular attendants of Bethel Temple.

There are plans to extend the licensing to handle 124 in the pre-school, and also plans to begin a day school. Kindergarten classes are projected for September 1971. Sue Boyer is the present director.

North Marin Nursery School has gained a fine community reputation and is held in high regard for its program and teaching staff. As a nursery school, the children attend three hour sessions two or three days a week. At the present the school has an enrollment of 80 pupils with a full-time director and three part-time teachers.

While using the church property, the school operates totally independent of North Main Assembly of God, and so is non-sectarian in nature.

The Good Shepherd Nursery School is sponsored by First Assembly of God in Chico. Evangelism is a vital part of Good Shepherd's program. By providing training in a Christian atmosphere the church endeavors to reach the family through the child. The daily Bible story is a requirement.

Their goals include extending classes through grade six and setting up a scholarship program to aid children of needy working mothers.

Sherwood Pre-School, sponsored by Cabrillo Assembly of God of Soquel, California, has an all-day care program designed for children aged 2½ to 8. Included in each day is a morning semi-structured session devoted to educational enrichment in specific areas such as music, stories, crafts, nature observation and Christian nurture. The school is open twelve months a year from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and is licensed by the state for 40 children.

Kiddie World Nursery School, sponsored by the First Assembly of God of Manteca, opened August 29, 1967. This year there is an enrollment of 73 and an average daily attendance of 40. Most of the children come from homes outside First Assembly.

Below is a note received from a Catholic mother.:

Dear Ladies;

The Boys' Daddy and I wish to take a moment to express our sincerest thanks for all the time and patience and love given to our boys this past year.

It takes very special people to care about other people. It has meant so much to us to be able to go about our jobs with the knowledge that the babies were being well taken care of.

God bless you in your fine work.

Mrs. Rebecca Rector

20TH CENTURY MIRACLE

Story by Kathleen Hollabaugh
reprinted from the Oakdale Leader

(Ed. Dave Sondeno of Oakdale Assembly of God has supplied us with this interesting brief concerning Gene Goines.)

Approximately five months ago Bethel Assembly of God in Oakdale decided to start building up their Men's Fellowship group under the direction of Burke Hollison. They held a Men's Fellowship dinner meeting and invited Roy Wilkerson to be the speaker. Bob Abernathy, a local barber and member of the church board, invited Gene Goines to go to the dinner with him.

Roy gave a very interesting and inspirational testimony and at the close of the meeting gave an invitation for those who would be interested in a personal experience with Christ. Gene responded but did not pray further. On the way home, during their conversation, Bob realized that Gene was very hungry for a real experience with Christ. Gene asked Bob if he thought Pastor Kramer or Roy would still be at the church. They went back to the church and there with Pastor and Roy praying with him, Gene prayed through to a wonderful salvation experience.

A month later Gene's wife, Donna, was also saved and a short time later Gene was filled with the Holy Spirit. His hunger was increased by his attendance at the Men's Fellowship "Days of Refreshing" at Springs of Living Water. Mrs. Goines was later baptized in water. Gene was unable to be baptized at that time because of his condition but he will be soon now that his healing has taken place.

Gene has been out playing football with his boys and baseball with the church softball team.

Glory to God for His healing power!!

Gene Goines, 35, exhibits no hesitancy in speaking of the great change in his life. He is enthusiastic—even eager to tell about it.

For the first time in six years, he will tell you, he walks without long leg braces and crutches.

"Praise the Lord! I'm not going to have to live on welfare," he exalts.

Goines, who resides with his family at Sawyer avenue and Highway 120, reports that he has not walked since September 1964, when an automobile accident left him with a broken back and severed spinal cord. As a result, he has been paralyzed from the waist down since that time. In 1967 he suffered two heart attacks and a third in 1969. He was recently hospitalized from problems resulting from the heart attacks.

On Sunday, June 28, he felt the service at his church was going to be something special, he reports. He felt it so strongly that he advised his wife of the fact and even stopped enroute to services at Bethel Assembly of God Church, Oakdale, that evening to tell friends.

In his own words, Goines says, "We arrived late—20 minutes late—the singing had already started. There was testimony and I told the Assembly that something wonderful was going to happen at the service. Another person also said she felt the same way... The sermon was on the subject of healing, but I didn't hear what Pastor Kramer (the Rev. Edwin Kramer) had to say. I started praying. Later others started praying with me. I did not pray for myself but just for whatever the Lord wanted... Then, still in my braces but without the crutches, I walked down the aisle to the front of the church. I knew I had been touched.

Goines describes his experience this way, "It was like I had put a finger from each hand into electric sockets."

There in the church, Goines reports, he took off the long leg braces and walked, not well but adequately, leaving the crutches and the 35 pounds of special shoes and braces in the church. Two days later members of the church brought him from his home to town to purchase a pair of shoes.

One of his greatest joys, Goines states, is that he now will be able to swim, fish and hunt with his four boys. Only the eldest son, now eight years old, has ever seen his father walk. Goines' second son was born two months after the automobile accident.

"They got such a thrill out of seeing me walk," he laughed.

Walking was a thing Goines took for granted at one time. He had been a professional diver before the automobile accident. He also drove late model stock cars and spent three years on the Okmulgee, Oklahoma police force. He has operated an ambulance service in Muskogee and McAllister, Oklahoma, and was general manager of Radio Station KMMM in the former city.

Before the automobile accident Goines had two close calls in his commercial diving career. The first occurred in Memphis, Tennessee, when he was diving in the Mississippi River and, through error, was brought to the surface with no decompression time.

In Muskogee, Oklahoma, six weeks later he went down for a checkout dive and was caught in an undercurrent 65 feet below the surface. The undercurrent took him further down. A regulator broke on the rocks left no time for decompression. In critical condition, Goines was flown to the Navy's facilities in Washington, D.C. and later spent some time in the Georgetown University Hospital.

Goines professes to "see the Lord's work" in these experiences.

Regarding his present physical condition, he reports that he is "no longer short-winded, he no longer takes medicine and that he has a lot of energy." "My coordination not complete," he said, "but it's getting better." He showed a scratch on his leg and describes his first feeling of pain in the leg in six years.

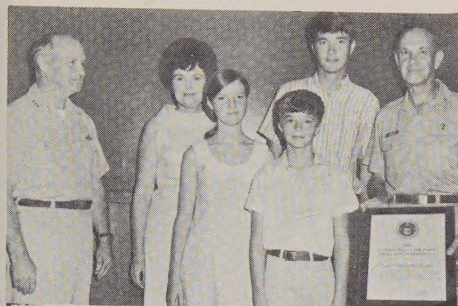

Goines began looking for a job almost as soon as he learned he could walk. He is looking forward to working again.

"I am a new man," he says, and "this is a new life for me!"

CHAPLAIN ROWLAND RECEIVES AWARD

Chaplain (COL) Wayne E. Rowland and his family are pictured with awards recently presented the Chaplain. They arrived in the Philippines early in July for a two-year tour of duty with HQs 13th Air Force. He is the assistant Staff Chaplain for 13th Air Force which is known as the jungle AF. His staff duties include supervision of all chaplains and chapel activities in Thailand, Formosa and the Philippines.

Chaplain Rowland writes, "A couple of pretty nice awards were presented to me shortly after I arrived here. The small folder I'm holding contained the Meritorious Service Medal and was signed by the Secretary of the Air Force and General Ryan, Chief of Staff. The citation reads: 'Chaplain, Colonel, Wayne E. Rowland distinguished himself in the performance of outstanding service to the United States as Personnel Procurement Officer, Personnel Div, Office of the Chief of Chaplains, Hq USAF from 15 July 1966 to 29 May 1970. During this period, Chaplain Rowland's close liaison with the ecclesiastical endorsing agencies of the nation's churches resulted in the selection of young clergymen of the highest caliber to man the ranks of the AF chaplaincy. Chaplain Rowland made major contributions to the procedures and policies of the Personnel Division which have had far-reaching salutary effects on the careers and lives of chaplains, as they serve the Air Force community. The singularly distinctive accomplishments of Chaplain Rowland reflect great credit upon himself and the United States Air Force.'

This District is happy to claim Chaplain Rowland as one of its very own men. He has served with much distinction in Washington, D. C. as is indicated in the above citation. Let us keep him and his family in our hearts and prayers as they minister to the military from their base in the Philippines.

REVIVALTIME VICTORIES

Usually the word victory is associated with shouting, excitement, and noisy hubbub. But the victories won at the Revivaltime altar are quiet victories.

In the solitude of a living room or the privacy of a bedroom, a listener is captivated by the gospel message coming from his radio. At the conclusion of every Revivaltime broadcast service, countless victories are won. The sound of these victories may only be a whispered prayer or a muffled sob. That is the earthly sound, but in heaven there is a sound of rejoicing in the presence of the angels for every sinner who repents.

Every week Revivaltime participates in uncountable quiet victories because millions of homes are reached from more than 630 radio transmitters both in America and overseas. And because Revivaltime reached them, those who experience these victories can testify, "Thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

WITH MY SUNDAY SCHOOL FRIENDS . . .

"About a month ago a friend and I were not going to Sunday school. Then I heard Brother Ward speaking to a young lady who was lost and away from God because she had stayed away from Sunday school. Brother Ward was speaking especially to me. I thank him for his good advice. I am happier now than ever before with my Sunday school friends."

A JOY I CANNOT EXPLAIN . . .

"Although a Christian, I had reached a state where I was at the point of backsliding. As time went on, I heard Brother Ward preaching about the backslidden condition of Israel. I listened as he explained the Word of God.

"As he illustrated the love of God for His people, I burst into tears before God. I immediately asked the Lord to forgive me for going so far away from Him. As I wept before the Master, there suddenly was a joy in my soul—a joy I cannot explain. The Spirit of God filled my soul. I thank God for the ministry He has given Brother Ward."

ENLIGHTENING . . .

"Please send me a copy of Reverend Ward's message. I am a teacher at Holy Name School and I find these Sunday evening broadcasts enlightening and meaningful."

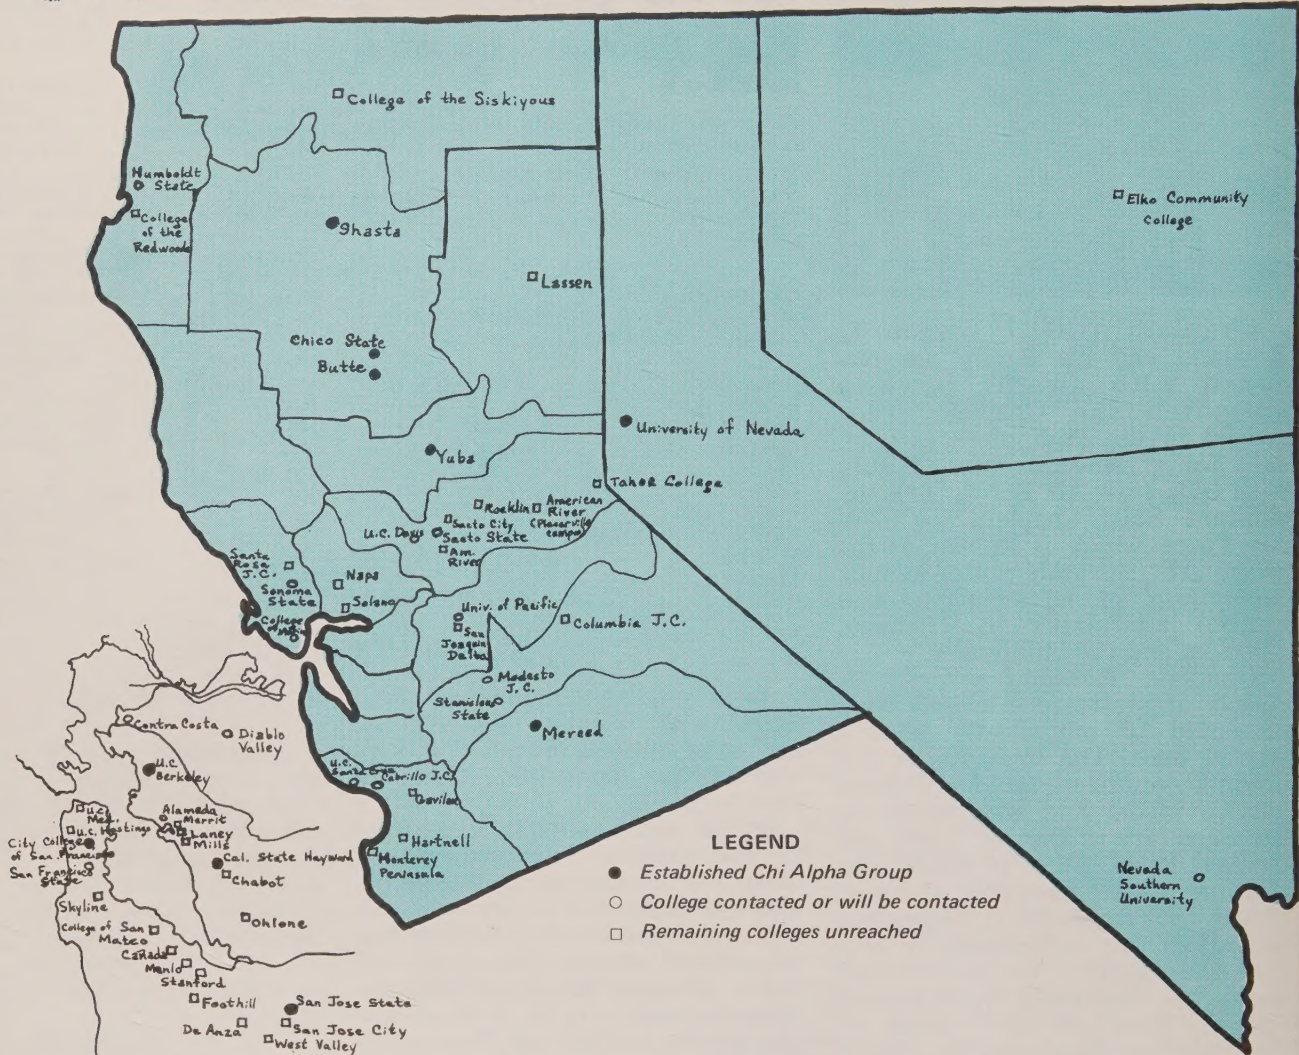

FROM THAT NIGHT ON . . .

"I want you to know that I enjoy Revivaltime very much. One Saturday night as I was listening to the broadcast while Brother Ward was praying at the close, I went on my knees and asked the Lord to save me. He wonderfully saved me, and from that night on my only desire has been to live true and faithfully unto my Lord."

Our team, joined by nine youth from the Northwest District, in Santo Andrea, Brazil, standing with Good News Crusade literature provided by MF Light for the Lost funds.

Jim Boehner, Santa Rosa First A/G Associate, was a team sponsor and music director. Here he is shown directing the crusade choir.

Sponsor Lee Paino, First A/G Alameda pastor, preaching and host missionary Bernhard Johnson interpreting.

"MIRACULOUS BRAZIL YMM"

Welcome Home to a team of dedicated youth loaded with souvenirs and unforgettable memories.

Team Farewell at Bethany Park Campmeeting, June 30.

Twenty-nine young people participated in the YMM trip to Brazil—20 from Northern California and 9 from Washington, Oregon and Idaho. Lee and Sharon Paino of Alameda and Jim Boehner of Santa Rosa were sponsors. They were gone the month of July spending time in Santo Andrea, Sao Paulo and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Their first week of door-to-door ministry in Santo Andrea resulted in 12,010 homes contacted (average of 10 people in each home), prayer held with 1,820 individuals and 480 decisions for Christ. The Good News Crusade directed by Bernhard Johnson saw crowds of 10,000 to 12,000 in attendance with 1,920 decisions, making a total of 2,400 decisions in two weeks of ministry. On their flight home a stop was made at Lima, Peru where together with the Walter Ericksons a city-wide youth meeting was held. The results of this YMM to Brazil have proven again the importance of youth in domestic and international evangelistic ministry.

Weary but a very happy YMM team arrives stateside.

WMC DAY AT REDWOOD CAMPMEETING

Winning the prize for "the most sheets given" was Crescent City, who gave 60 sheets to the WMC commissary this year.

Mrs. Ethel Murray, Redwood Sectional WMC director, and Goldia Anderson display quilts made and presented to them by Mrs. Pearl Herring during WMC Day at Redwood Campmeeting recently.

Mrs. Herring, who will celebrate her 70th birthday this October, has made 70 full-size quilts and 60 baby quilts during the past year. She has also, over this period of time, purchased 500 yards of material and made over 100 dresses for WMC.

One Saturday, during the campmeeting, Mrs. Herring prepared and served strawberry shortcake to all ministers and wives attending.

Pearl Herring is a member of the First Assembly of God Church in Eureka, where Rev. Harold Casper is pastor.

HONORING RALPH WILLIAMS

In 1922 two young men in South Wales, Great Britain, felt the call of God to go to the Spanish speaking peoples of the American continent with the gospel message.

Ralph and Richard Williams left their homeland and came to the United States where they entered Glad Tidings Bible Institute in San Francisco to prepare themselves for the ministry.

Richard died in 1931 of the dread disease of typhus which he contracted while working among the Quechua Indians of Peru. He was buried in the old British cemetery in Callao near Lima.

Ralph and Jewyl Williams

Ralph Williams and his faithful wife Jewyl have served in Central America through these intervening years of fruitful ministry. They have been a source of blessing and help to multiplied thousands as they have poured out their lives in faithful service. Rev. Paul Finkenzler, speaking in our District at the Light For The Lost Victory Banquet in March said, "Ralph Williams is the man responsible for my being in the ministry." That expression could be echoed and re-echoed by hundreds of christian workers throughout Latin America.

Brother and Sister Williams left on August 4 to go to Panama to work in the new Bible school there.

WORLD EVANGELISM

ROBERT W. PIRTLE
Director

They are now past retirement age and could spend their remaining years here at home without the rigors of sacrifice entailed in foreign service. But they see a need and they are in Panama today filling that need.

In 1972, the church in South Wales where Ralph and Richard Williams were members when they were called to the mission field, is celebrating its 50th anniversary. Rev. Eric Dando who was the Bible teacher at the Bethany Park campmeeting this summer is the present pastor of that church. He has invited Brother and Sister Williams to be present for the occasion of this celebration.

The District Executive Presbytery has authorized the establishment at District headquarters of a "Ralph Williams Anniversary Fund" to pay the expenses of Ralph and Jewyl Williams to attend the anniversary in Wales during 1972. Their many friends are invited to help with this fund by sending gifts and donations to Rev. William Vickery, Treasurer, P.O. Box 961, Santa Cruz, CA 95060. Mark your gift to "Ralph Williams Anniversary Fund."

Approximately $2,000 will be needed to pay the expenses of this trip. It will be an expression of only a small part of the gratefulness and appreciation for the many heroic years of toil and sacrifice made by these two choice servants of the Lord.

Victor Trimmer writes from Manila of God's blessings on a recent Ministers Institute at which he was speaker in Indonesia. Over 200 national pastors gathered for a week of institute services. Brother Trimmer says it was a real inspiration to work with these people and the great Assemblies of God missionaries who are laboring out there.

Mr. Trimmer is moving to Taiwan to minister. His address is P.O. Box 385, Taipei, Taiwan.

recently presented the keys to a 1965 $\frac{3}{4}$ ton pick-up camper to the District Home Missions Department for use by Pastor and Mrs. Maurice Caudill of Elko, Nevada.

The W.M.C. ladies of Calvary Temple furnished the camper with groceries, linens and bedding. The transfer, license and insurance on the vehicle were paid for one year by the church, and the tank was filled with gasoline. The pick-up is furnished with air-conditioning.

Rev. and Mrs. Caudill plan to use the camper for missionary work in the Nevada smaller communities. They already have invitations and openings into Indian reservations, mining communities, and ranchers' homes. They will conduct Bible Club type of services. They plan to conduct evangelistic services in halls, schools, etc. when available. The Caudills covet the prayers of each one in this 'Circuit-Rider' type of ministry God has laid on their heart.

The Fredolf Sondeno Family

We welcome the Fredolf Sondenoes home from Okinawa for furlough after a four-year term of fruitful ministry. They are at home at 902 South Genevieve Lane, San Jose, CA 95128. Their telephone number for the benefit of pastors and churches wishing to contact them is (408) 246-9608.

Rev. and Mrs. Mel Grams and family were through Santa Cruz recently on their way to Springfield, Missouri, where Brother Grams will assume duties of academic dean for the Assemblies of God International Correspondence Institute.

Mel and Verna Grams are missionaries to South Africa and served on the faculty of South Africa Bible College. They will continue under missionary appointment to serve in this vital capacity of disseminating Bible knowledge throughout the world.

Pastor Ed Weising and congregation at Elk Grove are rejoicing in the blessings of the Lord that have been showered upon them.

As a result of their recent missionary convention $200.00 a month has been pledged to the work of missions.

A recent revival with Evangelist Ron Stilwell has been a great blessing spiritually to the congregation.

The Lord has enabled them to recently carpet the entire sanctuary with new bright red carpeting. Brother Weising writes, "It has made such a difference in the whole atmosphere. The auditorium really looks beautiful now."

This is a Home Missions church that is on its way to strength and will no doubt one day soon be moving up to sovereign status.

John and Elsie Peck of Mexico are home on furlough and are available for conventions and missionary services. Their address is 385 College Avenue, Fresno, CA 93701, (209) 485-2635.

Missionaries Donnel and Venda McLean with their family are planning to arrive from Japan in early September for furlough. They will be living at Pacific Mission Villa in Bethany Park and may be reached there by pastors and churches who would like to have them for conventions and missionary services.

Craig & Chris Easter dressed in the native costume of Honduras for RFFM Day at Bethany Park Camp.

Missionary Eldon Easter has gone to Honduras, Central America on a special deputation trip for the Foreign Missions Department. He will be there for a period of several weeks. His family remains in the States where they are on regular furlough.

After leaving Anchorage and traveling largely at their own expense, the group of Bethel men went on to Unalaska, there to be joined by the minister in charge of some Missions projects in Alaska, Rev. Lawrence C. Burton. It was Rev. Burton who had made all the arrangements for the project before the men arrived. He and his wife were also very kind to the group and showed them much hospitality. There, with the assistance of the young man who will pastor the church, Rev. Terry Whittlesey, the building began. In spite of cold, fog, rain, and 20 to 40 mile-an-hour winds, it was almost completely finished nine days later. Work days were long, averaging about 14 hours a day, and the living conditions were at times rather inconvenient but the men from Bethel had a burden to do the work and returned saying they had had a wonderful time!

The building itself consists of a chapel, seating about 40, and living area with three bedrooms, kitchen, family room and bathroom (all heavily insulated) for Rev. Whittlesey and his family. Materials for the structure were supplied by the people of the Florida and Washington Districts. The town of Unalaska is populated with approximately a one-half white and a one-half Aleut population, totaling about 400, and is supported largely by a crab cannery. Oil company and United States Government employees make up other segments of the workers there. It is across the Bay from Dutch Harbor, Alaska, heavily populated during World War II by the military. Transportation, mail and supplies from the rest of the country reach Unalaska twice a week by plane, once a month by ship. There is one radio-telephone on the island which is available during weekday business hours only. The men from the busy metropolitan area of San Jose really felt that they had found the area Christ was referring to when he talked about "the uttermost part of the earth!"

Special mention should be made of the kindness shown to the 13 Bethel men in Unalaska by a Methodist couple, Mr. and Mrs. Coe Whittern, who, along with one other couple, were the only Christians on the island before the coming of the missionary-pastor, Rev. Whittlesey. Mr. Whittern (who is the son of a missionary to Alaska) and his wife housed and entertained the group and did much to make them feel welcome. They will be attending the little church.

Each man, on returning, felt as if he had really been privileged to have had a part in this mission. They reported that they were enriched spiritually by their experience, and had found a real burden for missions through their work in Unalaska, Alaska.

Men participating in this project were Dave Smith, Ken Culbertson, Russ Culbertson, Alvin Haun, Gene Haun, C. L. Hanson, Joe Elston, Marion Stempson, Bob Garcia, Victor Smith, Lloyd Combs, Rich Picone and Bob Combs.
